

Badge Issuances Listings

Unique Safe Combination Cards

To develop systems for Covert Case Processing Control and Analysis and of Security Credential Issuances

To conduct Feasibility Study of ADP applications in SRS and IRD.

To continue research and Development of the Polygraph-Computer Study of Stress.

To develop systems for Covert Case Processing Control and Analysis and Security Credentials Issuances and Control.

To develop systems, secure communications, and compatible interface between Agencies for National Agencies Name Check Systems.

To conduct Feasibility Studies of Safety Reporting, Personnel Administration, and other ADP applications in Office of Security Components and in computer production of file summaries.

To develop OS interface for DDS Management Information System.

To conduct Feasibility Study on centralization of records information required for investigations and for systems and facilities for control and processing of assignments at Field Offices.

To conduct additional Feasibility and Applications Studies of Security Information Processing by Automatic Data Processing Systems.

SECRET

